SUGGESTED ITINERARY: USVI ST. THOMAS

DAY 1

Start your charter by cruising to St. John island in Francis Bay for a day of snorkeling and seeing huge sea turtles, giant boulders, and beautiful coral heads. Or spend the day sightseeing through old ruins.

DAY 2

This morning is spent playing on wave runners in the glass-like waters of Coral Bay. Anchorage overnight in the Bight for a fun even at Pirates Bight known for West Indian cuisine and a cast-away setting. Next stop, Norman Island famous for cave snorkeling.

DAY 3

Today you visit the fantastic island of Tortola with powdery-white sand beaches, lush green mountains and a sheltered harbor. Enjoy shopping or island excursions. In the afternoon head to the island of Josh Van Dyke with only 200 inhabitants. Includes a stop at the must-see Foxy's Bar.

DAY 4

Cruise to Peter Island and enjoy sugary sand beaches, whispering breezes, and tranquil, turquoise waters. And a delightful visit to Peter Island Yacht Club Resort.

DAY 5

Visit the Island of Virgin Gorda and the Baths, where huge granite boulders create mysterious grottoes, salt water pools, and a connecting trail that entices you to spend a day exploring, swimming and snorkeling. Lunch at anchor or in beautiful Gorda Sound. Visit Necker Island (home of Richard Branson's house) and overnight dockage at The Bitters End.

DAY 6

Journey to the most picturesque and friendly anchorage in the British Virgin Islands, Soper's Hole Tortola. Wander through centuries old ruins. Or explore an array of shops and restaurants, offering everything from local spices, jams, rums, and soaps to hand-crafted jewelry, silk screened fabrics and local art.

DAY 7

Cruise to Megans Bay for a day of fun in the sun...wave running, snorkeling, and swimming. Picnic lunch on secluded beach.

DAY 8

Return to St. Thomas. Along the way motor into quiet coves, snorkel beautiful reefs or bask in the delightfully warm breezes. Explore the wonderful natural environment around St. Thomas by taking a guided kayak or hiking trip into ecologically fascinating areas. Or spend time in the shopping capital of the Caribbean, Charlotte Amelie.
